

COLOQUIO “CÓNSULES, CONSULARES Y EL GOBIERNO DE LA
REPÚBLICA ROMANA” / COLLOQUIUM “CONSULS, CONSULARS
AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ROMAN REPUBLIC”

Zaragoza 27/28 September 2007

Thursday 27:

9,30 h. – Opening

10-11,30 h.:

FABIO MORA (Messina): “Falsification of Fasti consulares and Early Roman Republic”

CHRISTOPHER SMITH (St. Andrews): “The Magistrates of the Early Roman Republic”

12-13,30 h.:

GIANPAOLO URSO (Milano): “Praetors and consuls in Cassius Dio’s
‘Roman History’”

ALEXANDER BERGK (DRESDEN): “The development of the praetorship in the third century BC”

16,30-18 h:

KARL-JOACHIM HÖLKESKAMP (Köln): “The Roman Republic as Theatre of Power: The consuls as leading actors”

FRANCISCO PINA POLO (Zaragoza): “Consuls as curatores pacis deorum”

18,30-20 h.:

FRANCISCO MARCO SIMÓN (Zaragoza): “Feriae Latinae as religious task of the consuls”

MATTHEW ROLLER (John Hopkins University, Baltimore), “Exemplarity and historicism in Roman historical consciousness: the case of Caius Duilius”

Friday 28:

10-11,30 h.:

HANS BECK (Montreal): “Consular Power and the Roman Constitution. The Case of imperium Revisited”

JUAN JOSÉ FERRER MAESTRO (Castellón): “Money and power. The relationship between consulship and war booty”

12-13,30 h.:

MICHAEL FRONDA (Montreal): “Privata hospitia, beneficia publica? Consul(ar)s, local elite, and Roman rule in Italy”

MARTIN JEHNE (Dresden): “The changing role of the consulares during the Roman Republic”

16,30-18 h.:

ANTONIO DUPLÁ (Vitoria): “The so-called consules populares”

VALENTINA ARENA (London): “Consules optimates”

18,30-20 h.:

ROBERT MORSTEIN-MARX (Santa Barbara, California): “Consular appeals to the army in 88 and 87: the locus of legitimacy in late-Republican Rome”

FREDERIC HURLET (Nantes): “Consuls and consulship under Augustus”

Closing